For your information on the Saint Timothée Church in Adamsville.

This church is no longer considered a sacred place since March 31st 2018 by a Decree issued by the Archbishop of Moncton. The decree may be found on the Archdiocese website: www.diomoncton.ca. Saint Timothée Church may no longer be utilized in any way for divine worship. We sincerely thank the people, the committees and the priests that have upheld this church since 1906 for all their efforts and involvements in so many ways.

Archbishop Valéry Vienneau

For fifty days, the people of God reflect on the meaning of Jesus' resurrection and of their sharing in it through baptism: dying to sin and living for God. For seven weeks we celebrate the presence of Jesus among us. We celebrate his ascension, and pray to him, seated in glory with the Father. As we prepare for Pentecost, we ask him to fill us with the grace and power of his Spirit.

Pre-registration is necessary and may be done by contacting Ellen.

Your parish needs you! Each time we attend Mass, we may notice people taking part in various roles or functions. In doing so, they are participating in "liturgical ministry," using their talents or "gifts" in service to the parish community. Very likely you have occasionally seen or heard a plea from your parish to consider offering your services in liturgical ministry. Many of our communities are seeing dwindling involvement in ministry, including lectors, communion ministers, greeters & ushers (hospitality), servers, musicians and singers. This may be due to age, illness, relocation, or other unknown factors. In response to this reality, a Liturgical Ministry Information Session will be offered to assist and inform those who would like to serve their community in this manner but are unsure of the talents/gifts/skill necessary to be an effective liturgical minister. The session will be held on May 1st, 7-8:30 PM, at Holy Family Church, Falkland Street. (also open to those already involved who may be questioning or considering a different ministry) The evening will be facilitated by Deb Gillespie, Liturgy Coordinator for the English parishes of the Archdiocese of Moncton, & Mark Mahoney, Pastoral Associate for Saint Elizabeth of the Trinity. To register, contact: Deb at: liturgymoncton@gmail.com, or Mark Mahoney at: markmahoney@rogers.com or 386-6178.
