Fourth Sunday of Easter (A)

Acts 2:14a, 36-41

1 Pt 2:20b-25

In 10:1-10

The sheep hear his voice, as he calls his own sheep by name and leads them out.

JOHN 10:3

Matters of Life and Death

Sheep are a lot smarter than some people think. They recognize the voice of their particular shepherd and follow that voice alone. However, that is not the point of Jesus' teaching today. Because most of us don't raise sheep or know much about them, we don't realize that the situation described in the Gospel passage is a matter of life and death.

It's similar to the relationship between a military squad leader and the troops he leads, another life-and-death matter. In both, unquestioning obedience is required, and absolute trust in the other is presumed.

That's what Jesus is describing. He's suggesting: "Listen to me. Follow my lead. Trust in me. I want only what is good for you, so I will be your sure protection."

It sounds so easy, as parables and metaphors usually do. What does it mean to follow this Shepherd? In the first reading, Peter announces the answer in one word: "Repent!" There is that challenging word—the word we might associate with Lent, not with Easter. If we do so, we miss the point of following the Shepherd, for to follow him means to be like him. It means: "Repent! Stop taking advantage of other people. Open your minds and hearts to newcomers. Respect those who observe different religious traditions. Help those less fortunate than you." All of this is captured in the final words of the Gospel reading: do what you can so that all "might have life and have it more abundantly" (John 10:10). Clearly, that's smart.

FOR Reflection

- ✦ On what path might the Shepherd be leading you?
- ✦ In what area is he calling you to repent?

Alleluia, Alleluia.
I am the good shepherd, says the Lord;
I know my sheep, and my own know me.
Alleluia.

A Time To Reflect & Be Grateful

Living through COVID-19 it would be hard to believe there is not a purpose to be found in it. While we don't believe this pandemic is from God, we can see that the noise and busyness in our lives has been turned down more than we could have ever imagined. Creating a perfect opportunity for all of us to simply slow down and to open our ears and hearts to listen to the voice of God. When restrictions are lifted...the noise and busyness will rush back in again - whether we like it or not. With all of the negativity that has surrounded us in these past week's, let us also remember to be thankful for the many blessing that we take for granted every day.

Praise and give thanks to God.
 Psalm 46:10 - Be still and know that I Am God...

Prayers of Intercession

For all of us, the church; for an unwavering faith that remains focused on God regardless of the challenges we face.

We pray.

For our world and its many needs. For those affected by the tragedy in Nova Scotia, the flooding in Fort McMurray and for those affected by the HMCS Fredericton / Cyclone helicopter crash.

We pray.

For the homeless, the poor and all who may be experiencing loneliness, fear, anxiety and despair during these difficult times.

We pray.

For all the sick; for God's comfort and healing. For those who take risks to attend to the needs of others and for all who are caring for the sick.

We pray.

For all who have died. For the families who could not be with their loved ones that have died and who are unable to celebrate a funeral at this time.

We pray.

"Do not be worry about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus." Philippians 4:6-7

World Day of Prayer for Vocations - May 3

The fourth Sunday of Easter, Christians are invited to reflect on the meaning of God's call and to pray for vocations. Christ, the Good Shepherd, continues to lead his people through His Bishops, Priests, and Deacons, and calls many to follow Him in this way. Priestly, diaconal, and religious vocations should be a constant concern in the hearts of God's people.

Act of Spiritual Communion

*My Jesus, I believe that You are in the Blessed Sacrament.
I love You above all things, and I long for You in my soul.
Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. As though You have already come, I embrace You and unite myself entirely to You;
never permit me to be separated from You.*

Amen

The Movie "Love and Mercy": Faustina, is a film depicting the story of St. Faustina and how the devotion to Divine Mercy came into being. It is available from April 5th for 30 days at FanForceTV.com

50 Days
Easter

For fifty days, the people of God reflect on the meaning of Jesus' resurrection and of their sharing in it through baptism: dying to sin and living for God. For seven weeks we celebrate the presence of Jesus among us. We celebrate his ascension, and pray to him, seated in glory with the Father. As we prepare for Pentecost, we ask him to fill us with the grace and power of his Spirit.

The seven weeks from Easter to Pentecost are celebrated as one great Feast Day. St. Athanasius called them "the great Sunday." Christians sing the "Alleluia" during these days in their rejoicing. (GNLY, no.22)

SHARING IS CARING.
CARING IS LOVING.

Dear Padre,

How will it happen that Jesus will come again and lead us “through the gates”?

We have it from the best of authorities that the date of the world's end is hidden. Jesus said, “But of that day and hour no one knows... but the Father alone” (Matthew 24:36). In spite of Christ's admonition that the day of his Second Coming is known but to God, there have been countless false prophets who have confidently but incorrectly predicted a date for the end of the world. Most of these foolish forecasters based their claims on misinterpretations of the Book of Revelation.

The main purpose of the Book of Revelation is to assure us that God's power will prevail. In the ongoing struggle between good and evil, there are times when evil seems to have the upper hand. No matter. Evil will be conquered and God's rule will extend over all creation.

The world might end tomorrow, or next year, or in five billion years. Jesus tells us we can't know for sure. We are sure, however, that this world will pass away. And for each one of us the world will end at the moment of death. What matters is that we should always be ready to meet Christ.

And we shall be ready if we follow Christ, our Shepherd, whom we meet in today's Gospel. Jesus leads us safely through this life by his teaching, his example, and his grace.

A WORD FROM Pope Francis

We should never forget: the Church is not a static reality, inert, an end in herself, but is on a continual journey through history, towards that ultimate and marvelous end that is the kingdom of heaven, of which the Church on earth is the seed and the beginning.
