

Fulfilled in Your Hearing

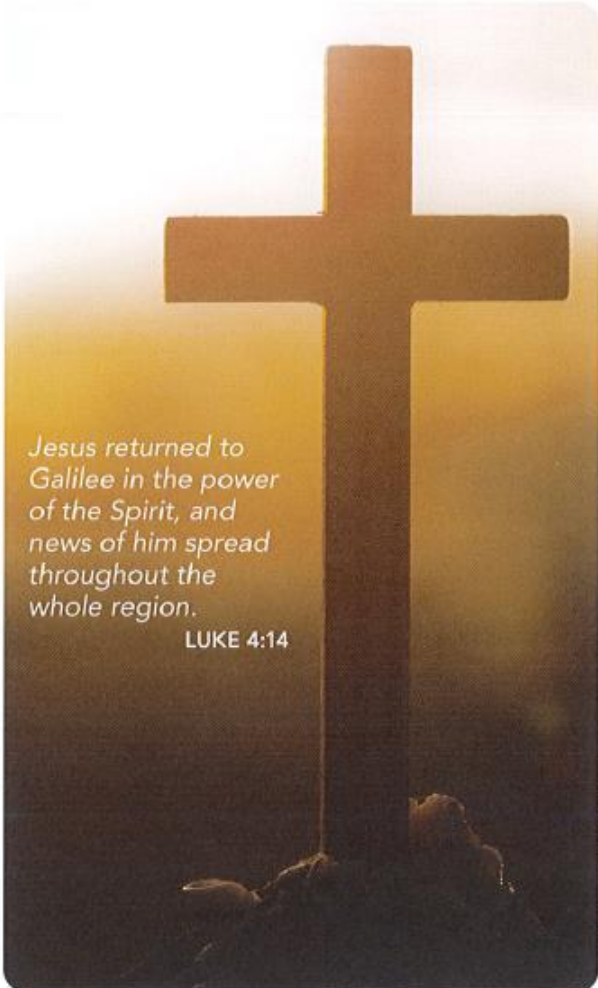

When we hear that phrase, we might be inclined to think of prophecy.

However, today's readings suggest something a bit different. True, in today's Gospel, Jesus states that he is the fulfillment of the promise made by the prophet Isaiah. However, the way that passage was fulfilled by Jesus was not the way his hearers expected. The passage seems to promise a change in society where there will be no more poor or prisoners. The people expected a political change which would overthrow Roman control. Jesus' application was quite different. The fulfillment of that prophecy included a new and often radical way of understanding society. In other words, Jesus revealed the true meaning of the prophecy.

Such reapplication is even clearer in the first reading. Nehemiah, the Jewish leader of those who had returned from Babylonian exile, gathered all the community together, read the Law, and then reapplied it for them.

Reapplication is often necessary because what might have been a helpful way of understanding something in our faith under some circumstances might be impractical, even inappropriate, in others. For example, to pray for an end to war is important, but to do nothing to work for peace changes how we understand prayer. Circumstances often change as we go through life. Reapplication of our faith acknowledges this and searches for ways that faith can continue to address those changing circumstances. Faithful reapplication always keeps our religious tradition alive and meaningful.

For a Synodal Church: Communion, Participation, and Mission

If you are wondering how you can be involved in the Synod: parishes have been invited by Archbishop Valéry Vienneau to organize consultative meetings in their parishes, as we strive together to discern the Holy Spirit's calls for the Church today. He reminds us that this first phase of the Synod consultations is of vital importance since it involves listening to the People of God guided by the Holy Spirit. The pandemic is presently making it difficult for parishes to proceed as they would like but stay tuned to your bulletins as parishes attempt to put these meetings in place. Service Organizations, Ministry Groups, Family Groups, Single Groups, Children and Youth, Seniors, Movements within the parish, and any other formal or informal grouping of people may also take the initiative to organize a discussion group around the questions found on the Vatican website.

Patriarch Bartholomew, Greek Orthodox Church

In last week's bulletin, we looked at the Popes who have spoken and written about the environment. In addition, numerous scientists, theologians, and other groups have addressed the issue. Also, other churches and religions have expressed deep concerns on environmental issues. Patriarch Bartholomew of the Greek Orthodox Church has spoken of the need for each of us to repent of the ways we have harmed the planet. He challenges us to acknowledge our sins against creation and to look for solutions not only in technology but in a change of humanity.

You are invited to our diocesan web site at <http://www.diomoncton.ca/en/news-item/diocesan-committee-laudato-si-> to view the second presentation from our Laudato Si Committee, prepared by Sr Denise Lirette, FJ.

COVID-19 Phase 3: January 13th 2022 Update-Published : 2022-01-13

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ Jesus,

Guidelines effective January 15th, 2022, for Eucharistic Celebrations and COVID-19.

The Premier of NB and Public Health officials announced several preventive measures to contain the spread of the Omicron variant, COVID-19. In summary, we are moving from level 2 to level 3 on Friday night, January 14, at midnight.

As a result, all Weekday, Saturday and Sunday Masses, and Celebration of the Word will be canceled from Saturday, January 15th, to Sunday, January 30th inclusively.

The parish offices can remain open with extremely limited public access.

I am not surprised that Public Health felt the need to impose these new health measures. Let us pray that all these strict measures for our faithful and our clergy will at least produce the desired effects: the reduction of the transmission of the virus, the safeguarding of the health system, and the protection of the people, especially the most vulnerable.

May the Lord bless us and continue to watch over us!

Mgr Valery Vienneau-Archbishop of Moncton

Sunday of the Word of God:

In the Apostolic Letter Aperuit illis, Pope Francis instituted the Sunday of the Word of God, which is celebrated on the 3rd Sunday of Ordinary Time.

“Devoting a specific Sunday of the liturgical year to the word of God can enable the Church to experience anew how the risen Lord opens up for us the treasury of his word and enables us to proclaim its unfathomable riches before the world.”-Pope Francis, Aperuit illis,2

Dear Padre,

In your previous column you wrote that the Mass commemorates Jesus' Last Supper and is a thanksgiving for God's gifts to us. Are there other reasons to get out of bed early and attend Sunday Mass?

The Mass is all about giving thanks for God's forgiveness of sins and his plan for eternal life. In fact, Eucharist is derived from the Greek word meaning "gratitude" or "thanksgiving." But there are many other reasons to participate in the Mass.

The Mass is our opportunity to be present with our Lord in the forms of bread and wine. God doesn't usually make frightening appearances to us accompanied by crashing thunder and lightning. Rather, he makes himself accessible to us in the humble form of food. Jesus said, "Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him on the last day" (John 6:54).

As St. Augustine put it, when we receive Christ in these forms, we become what we receive. We are the body of Christ, not as individuals but as his Church. His Church is his physical presence on earth today, the way people come into contact with Christ.

When we participate in the Mass, we become witnesses to all of this: our liberation from sin and death; our Lord's Real Presence to us in the forms of bread and wine; and we, as Church, becoming what we receive—the body of Christ. Can there be better reasons for waking up on a Sunday morning and attending Mass?

Without Christ we are condemned to be dominated by everyday weariness, with its worries, and by fear of the future. The Sunday encounter with the Lord gives us the strength to experience the present with confidence and courage, and to go forth with hope. For this reason, we Christians go to encounter the Lord...in the Eucharistic celebration.
